

Rona Jaffe Graduate Fellow in 2021. Her work has been nominated for the Pushcart Prize, and her poems can be found in Ninth Letter, Grist, and Variant Lit, among others. She is the co-founder/co-editor of The Swannanoa Review.

Erica Wright is the author of nine books, including the essay collection Snake (Bloomsbury, 2020) and the forthcoming poetry collection A Buyer's Guide the Afterlife (Black Lawrence Press, 2026). She was the poetry editor at Guernica for more than a decade and currently teaches at Bellevue University. Her poems have appeared in Blackbird, Denver Quarterly, The Rumpus, and elsewhere. She lives in Knoxville, Tennessee with her family.

Marissa Yuan is a Chinese, first-generation immigrant and a non-native English speaker. She lives in Houston, TX with her husband and three fur babies. She works as a trader in the financial industry and writes in her free time for passion. Her work can be found in New Ohio Review, Ocotillo Review, and Galaxy's Edge. One of her stories is a winner of Stories That Need to Be Told contest.